

BE THANKFUL

不可貪婪

Do not covet. Always be thankful for what you have.

I knew a boy dissatisfied,
he craved what others
owned.

He thought they would bring happiness. If only he had known.

"I need a brand new riding bike like neighbor Don," thought he.

"Then I would surely be content and happy as can be."

Be thankful for what
you have.

Look around and you will see.

Your treasures are everywhere.

The best ones found
are free.

Though Don he owned that brand new bike, his joy was incomplete.

"A motor scooter's what I need," said Don to neighbor Pete.

But Pete with his new motor bike, he often would complain.

"I cannot ride when winter comes, or when it starts to rain."

If you'll obey this simple rule found in this simple song,

You'll find the things you really want and never will go wrong.

So don't let others' things become the apple of your eye.

Our heavenly Father's good and kind, His love will satisfy.

Be Thankful

I knew a boy dissatisfied
He craved what others owned He thought it would bring happiness
If only he had known

“I need a brand new riding bike Like neighbor Don,” thought he, “Then I would surely be content And happy as can be.”

Be thankful for what you have
Look 'round and you will see
Your treasures are everywhere
The best ones found are free

Though Don he owned
That brand new bike
His joy was incomplete
"A motor scooter's what I need,"
Said Don to neighbor Pete

But Pete with his new motor bike
He often would complain, “I cannot ride when winter comes Or when it starts to rain.”

Be thankful for what you have
Look 'round and you will see
Your treasures are everywhere
The best ones found are free

If you'll obey this simple rule
Found in this simple song
You'll find the things
You really want
And never will go wrong

So don't let others' things become The apple of your eye
Our Heavenly Father's
Good and kind
His love will satisfy

Be thankful for what you have
Look 'round and you will see
Your treasures are everywhere
The best ones found are free