

Tell The Truth!

Do not lie.

Stretchin' the truth is tellin' a lie.

Angels are honest,
that's why they can fly.

Why would you fib? There ain't no reason why.

Tell the truth, tell the truth,
tell the truth.

I borrowed a watch
from my brother,
It accidentally broke.

I thought for sure he'd be angry,

I got so scared
I could croak.

I thought of makin'
excuses,

And tellin' little white lies.

Then I remembered what the Good Book says,
Tell the truth, tell the truth,
tell the truth.

I told my brother what happened,

But strangely to my surprise,

He said that it didn't matter,

That I's just one of the guys.

Mistakes can easily
happen,

And you'd be tempted
to lie.

But when you're tellin' the truth from your heart
I keep tellin' the problems
good-bye.
